

pate Mon Nov 4 15:41 page 1

NO.	PR	TITLE	PRODUCTION	RE BETA	TIME	CUME	BACK	STAT	OK
-----	----	-------	------------	---------	------	------	------	------	----

03	_DT	HOSPITAL Q & A	_2-Debbie/1-mon+_	9733*B	_1:05_				_R
----	-----	----------------	-------------------	--------	--------	--	--	--	----

Created by:	pate	Date:	04/11/02 14:10:44	Modified by:	lisa	Line:
-------------	------	-------	-------------------	--------------	------	-------	--

Credit:		Modified at:	04/11/02 15:21:59
---------	--	--------------	-------------------

Edit Master:		Editor:		Source Tape
--------------	--	---------	--	-------------

DEBBIE TO CAMDEBBIE TO CAM.

We're now joined by Andrew Pate at Gosport War Memorial Hospital.

1. Andrew, what will the solicitors be discussing with the Police?

Well, some families are not happy with how the police have investigated their claims, so far. And the solicitors say it's their job to combine all the complaints.

TAKE ENG (HOSPITAL FAMILY SBITE 1)TAKE ENG.DUR: 24"TAPE 9733out: help to do"

"The families have felt very isolated. And they've made individual complaints. For instance some to the police. Some to the General Medical Council. Some to the Nursing and midwifery council and so on. But none of these agencies talk to each other. And so they don't know about all these other complaints. And that's what we're going to help to do."

pate

Mon Nov 4 15:41 page 2

Among those campaigning for answers are Jim Ripley and his wife. They say he was admitted to hospital because of his oesteo-arthritis. But he ended up - in a coma.

TAKE ENG (HOSPITAL FAMILY SBITE 2)

TAKE ENG.

DUR: 20"

TAPE 9696

out: little frightened old man"

"I wanted to blow the place up. I was so angry. He's a big man, but we couldn't see him in the ward. My daughter said there he is. He had shrunk. He was a little, frightened old man."

Jim was then transferred to Haslar Hospital, where he recovered, The families say they just want answers.