Yes, I will pass the message round them all as well.
 I hope I drove a few point home with PC and that he will ask the police the right questions when the time comes. It was surely better to do things the way we have rather than wait for the police to use smoke and mirrors again. At least now he is in no doubt we need very specific answers to specific issues if they decide to continue blocking justice.
 Do have a good break, and see you on 3rd at Portcullis House.

Hi!

Very good to see you yesterday with Iain. Well done.

Thanks for this list. Are you going to notify them all too - dual approach for effectiveness and all that. I will let Norman Lamb know to be expecting them.

We are meeting at 12.30 pm so the press could expect to see us at about 1.00 - 1.30 pm - ish.

See you at Portcullis House at 12.30 pm on 3 November 2009.

I am off on holiday next week so will be delayed in responding. Back in on 2 November.

Best wishes

From: Charles Farthing [Code A]Sent: 23 October 2009 09:06To: White, JohnSubject: Press Contacts

As promised John, please find all my Press contacts listed below. I would suggest that it might help to reinforce the importance of the occasion if we both try and make contact.

Nina Lakhani (Independent) [Code A]

Sue Saville (ITN News) [Code A]

Charlotte Gray (Central News Agency) [Code A]

Sarah Boseley (The Guardian) [Code A]

Dominic Blake (BBC) [Code A]

Beth Hale (Daily Mail) [Code A]

Chris Owen (Portsmouth News) [Code A]

Rachel Hine (Portsmouth News) [Code A]

Andrew Pate (Meridian News) [Code A]

I wonder also if we shouldn't invite Peter Walsh to the party on 3 Nov? He is usually good value on the publicity front.
