4. No - the Coroner has suspended his investigation whilst the police reinvestigate.

Presently we are completely stuck re Gillian's case. Coroner, Police, CPS and LSC all blocking. We need parliamentary help.

Hi John, how are you?

I have a couple of question I'd like to look into before we meet Louis on Thursday if you don't mind:

1. How is the CPS deciding which relatives to see or not? Have you put requests in for all of them or just some? How did it go last Thursday?
2. I am going to make some phonecalls about Gillian's stagnated case today, so could you give the details of who you are dealing with at the Legal Services Commission please and also what was the last correspondence you received from them?
3. Also, can you please remind me of Paul Close's email as I seem to have accidentally deleted it - Thanks.
4. Have you had any more correspondence from the coroner re Gillian's mother?

Lastly, is there anything in particular that you'd like me to bring or refresh my memory about before Thursday's meeting?

Best wishes

Hi! thanks

Good luck up in Sheffield. Is something exciting going on there?

Do n't think there is anything sinister in Gillian not having a date yet with the CPS. I will raise it tomorrow.

Will be in touch soon.

Best wishes

Hi John

I just wanted to ask you to please keep me informed about the forthcoming meetings at the CPS - obviously I understand that you are representing the relatives, but happy to keep information off-the-record if necessary - just want to be fully informed before we see Louis. Why do you think Gillian hasn't been given a date with the CPS yet? And actually what about people like Barney Page and Mrs Packman etc - are they to have meetings or is it just three relatives? I'm off to Sheffield now, but will be in touch.

Good luck tomorrow

Best wishes
