Hi!

Many thanks for the email. Hope you have a good holiday in Canada. It sounds a fantastic break.

Everything is pretty much in place for tomorrow now. We are going to put in some written submissions to the Coroner along the lines of our discussion on 31 July.

We have had a swift response re the questionnaire, which is good. We are still thinking over the tactics re the other families. I'll send a briefing to Hugh which he can circulate amongst them - we could do periodic updates which you may also find helpful for keeping track of things.

No worries re Gill - send her my best wishes and we will cope.

Have a great time
Best wishes

Dear John

Sadly we are so stretched at the moment (holidays etc) that none of us can make it on Thursday. Hope it goes well. Please pass our best wishes to all of the families and say we are with them in spirit and confident they are in good hands with your support. We will stay engaged.

I am away now until 2nd September. I would be grateful if you could let my deputy Hugh Williams know how it goes and if we could have a summary to distribute to the other families. As well as Hugh, you met Gillian Savage and Louise Price at the meeting who may be able to help.

As agreed, we wrote to them with your questionnaire and I hope some have got back to you.

Thanks and good luck!
