Yes, no problem with the NHS writing their empty gestures if they wish, but they are wasting their time. If they took the trouble of looking at their records of my complaints in 1998 my address is still the same.

Hi!

Re Letter to CPS

I hope your trip was successful.

Please accept my apologies but I have just been caught up in quite an urgent matter on another case which has set me back rather this week. I wonder would it be okay if I come back to you by tomorrow morning. Many apologies for the delay. I had an unpredicted start to the week.

On a separate matter the NHS would like to write to the families in the inquest and have asked if I can provide the addresses. I have told them that we are discussing further action anyway. However please can you let me know if I may pass your address on to the NHS so that they can write to you directly in the first instance. I would like them to communicate with us as soon as possible.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes
