Thanks

I am sure that will be fine. Just a bit tied up today but I will be able to come back to you by tomorrow.

It would be useful if your client can write to us at the same time. As far as the aftermath of the inquest is concerned we still represent them and they have asked us to look at options for further actions, but nothing has been definitely decided as yet as to what those should be.

Hope you are keeping well.

Best wishes

Hi John

The PCT is on the verge of writing to your four clients to offer a follow up meeting but it doesn't have contact details. With the permission of your clients would you be able to provide full names and addresses so that the letter can be sent out as soon as possible? Many thanks.
