Hi - thanks

I'll give you a call to talk about the verdict.

We got legal aid for the inquest only but the question is now where we go next.

Look forward to speaking soon.

Best wishes

John

Hi John

I was wondering what the next move will be, i have only knowledge from the News, however, from that i feel the verdicts are a sham. It appears the only familys who got a yes verdict are the loud ones that turned up every day clutching a brefcase, which seems a bit odd. Although i wanted this to stop, i now feel angry about the verdict and wondered if we got legal aid, and if we were going to go further.

Look forward to hearing you views
