Hi!

Re Gosport inquest

Just a quick update

It looks likely that Dr Barton will give more evidence tomorrow. This Thursday looks like it will be closing submissions which will be worth coming along to and then on Tuesday and Wednesday next week will be the Coroner's summing up and the verdict. I assume the last day will be of most interest.

I am still not sure at this stage if the Coroner will allow "unlawful killing" to be up before the jury or not.

Thought you may like to know where we are.

Best wishes
