Hi!

You have been great volunteering to step forward for this. I am also extremely impressed with how you have handled Mr Wilson. Such things deserve and should be remembered.

Please do n't feel forced to come to the summing up/ verdict unless you would find them interesting. I will be delighted for you to come along - but I would not wish you to lose any opportunities with regards to other work. Just let me know what would suit.

Thanks again
Best wishes

Dear John

Sorry to whinge! Very unattractive and very good of you to be so typically understanding.

And no - I certainly don't expect any 'payback' - merit alone should be the guide and that is at my risk !

I will see whether I can make summing up/verdict (which might be over two days given number of inquests)

I have chased the LSC. I expect that they will prevaricate but I would have thought that we have good grounds to appeal if they did not do the business.

I am sorry to hear that you have been dragged in perhaps more than we would hope. I am really very grateful to you that you were prepared to come in to this. In terms of the big picture I hope that we can make it worthwhile for you in the long term.

I think it would be asking too much for you to come for the summing up/ verdict - but I would certainly be happy to put in an amended costing if you actively wanted to be there. Given the funding risks overall I will certainly understand if you would prefer not to.

I'll pass the questions on to Mr Wilson

Many thanks for all this and sorry if its being a pain.

Best wishes

John -

Please see amended line of questions for Barton. Please could you forward this to Mr.Wilson.

Seems unlikely that coroner will leave the verdict of u/k in Mr.Wilson's case to jury but I will still try.

Neglect (discussed with Tom briefly) isn't viable I think in Mr.Wilson's case.

At present I am going to P'mouth Tuesday (wilcock), Wednesday (Barton) & Thursday (submissions) this week (unfortunately I am having to give away a con fixed on Thursday - the 2nd one!) so I am feeling a little frustrated! I think the LSC six day max cover has already been reached anyway (or will have been after tomorrow).

Would you/client want me to be there for summing up/verdict after Easter? Let me know.

Many thanks
