Subject: Today - Mr Ian Wilson

Hi!

Re Gosport Inquests - Mr Ian Wilson
Important

I am up in London all day today. Please be aware of this if you take any call from Mr Ian Wilson, who is a relative of the deceased in the Gosport Inquests.

On Monday he called and was rude and abusive on the telephone. He is NOT our client. If he calls and I am out then please do NOT give him ANY information. Only offer to take a message and say I will call him back at the next opportunity, which may not be until tomorrow.

I had agreed to provide him with some copy papers and the files are on reception with Gordon the security man who knows about this. Mr Wilson said he would collect the papers on Monday but he failed to attend as had been arranged. The papers are still there and he may just pick them up which is okay. Gordon is not to let Mr Wilson into the building and no-one should agree to see him.

As said - if he calls he must speak to me and that is all that you should offer. If he turns up and will not go away then Gordon will have to ask him to leave the premises.

Hope this is clear. Sorry it sounds heavy but it is very important. I am in the London office all day. If he does contact us, please email me.

It is possible that his brother Robert Logan may call instead. He is usually reasonable. Again please just take a message. Only I should speak to him.

Hope things otherwise go well.
Best wishes
