Sarette, Carole

We haven't yet had all the background detail we need to complete this but thought I should share it with you at this stage anyway just in case you need to refer to it tomorrow.

It is not ready to share with journalists yet though so please don't pass around!

The main section that needs updating is the What happens at GWMH today section... (Sara: I think that becomes a direct lift from your broader internal briefing doc once all the gaps are filled in...)

Sara: also worth you giving the rest of this the once over to make sure you're happy with it.

Thanks

D.
