

Close Paul

From: [Code A]
Sent: 08 June 2010 13:24
To: Close Paul
Subject: RE: re GOSPORT

Thanks Paul for this update,

R

R [Code A] | PA to Principal Legal Advisor
 Private Office – Crown Prosecution Service

Rose Court, 2 Southwark Bridge,
 London, SE1 9HS

[Code A]
www.cps.gov.uk

---

From: Close Paul
Sent: 07 June 2010 18:40
To: M [Code A]
Cc: Clements Simon; [Code A]
Subject: FW: re GOSPORT

[Code A]

As requested by you last month, please see below for an update. Rather meagre progress I am afraid. Counsel will hopefully do the final tranche of the advice in the very near future and then we can start trying to unravel this saga of a case.

Paul

---

From: Close Paul
Sent: 07 June 2010 18:37
To: [Code A]
Subject: FW: re GOSPORT

T/DCI Grocott

Sorry for the yet continuing delay in getting this matter wound up. I do realise the pressures at your end. I am hoping to hear from counsel any time now. I will write formally to you as soon as I do so. We can hopefully fix up a meeting for later this month. The office has moved but I will provide full details in due course.

Please see below for information.

Kind Regards,

Paul Close

---

From: Close Paul
Sent: 07 June 2010 18:28
To: White, John
Subject: re GOSPORT

Dear Mr White,

16/06/2010

Thank you for your letter of 1 June 2010. I confirm that the matter is still under consideration. I am expecting to hear further from counsel with the final tranche of advice any time now. When I do so I will write further to you. I am extremely conscious of the time which this is all taking and the difficulties which this is causing to you and to your clients.

I do appreciate that my comments may sound a little hollow. However I promise I really be in touch as soon as I can.

Yours Sincerely,

Paul Close,

Code A [nb New offices and tel number but the old address remains for the time being].