Dear Mr White,

Thank you for your letter of 11 April 2010 to the Director, which has been passed to me to reply. May I say at the outset that I am acutely aware of the difficulty in maintaining the proposed time scales in this matter? I am also very aware of the effect that this has on your clients.

There are a few remaining issues which I wish to clarify with counsel, in addition to those raised by you in your last letter. These should be resolved completely within the next two weeks when I will write further to you. I will then also try to make a definite appointment with you, come what may, so we can discuss matters, as we proposed to do some weeks ago.

Yours Sincerely,

Paul Close,
CPS HQ
