Dear Both,

Please see below for update and in case you thought I had forgotten you. I propose to fix up a meeting with you [I hope early next month whenever convenient to you] so we can work out a general plan of campaign. Hopefully we can deal with a joint approach on all the relevant issues prior to any meetings with the families and/or John White. I realise that some of those meetings may not be joint with you.

We should be able to thrash out most/all of the issues. That said I often feel that when one is resolved another two....

I hope to have a final tranche of input from counsel in the near future.

Kind regards,

Paul

Dear Mr White,

Thank you for your letter of 11 April 2010 to the Director, which has been passed to me to reply. May I say at the outset that I am acutely aware of the difficulty in maintaining the proposed time scales in this matter? I am also very aware of the effect that this has on your clients.

There are a few remaining issues which I wish to clarify with counsel, in addition to those raised by you in your last letter. These should be resolved completely within the next two weeks when I will write further to you. I will then also try to make a definite appointment with you, come what may, so we can discuss matters, as we proposed to do some weeks ago.

Yours Sincerely,

Paul Close,
