Mr Close,

I am writing to enquire whether you have any information as to a possible date for completion of this case? Our last correspondence was over a month ago when you anticipated holding a meeting at the end of June. I am concerned that we are now approaching the holiday period and that unless this is addressed fairly quickly it will be over a year that Counsel has had the papers.

I appreciate that you and Counsel are busy but regardless of the outcome there is likely to be further work for the police either of an investigate nature or responding to considerable Freedom of Information requests. I need to assess what resources I will require for the forthcoming months for this operation. If you consider that this will not be resolved before the end of July then I would like to arrange a meeting with you and Simon Clements to discuss a future timetable.

Regards

Dave Grocott
