Detective Superintendent Williams,

I have provisionally set the conference up for 3 pm on 27 September 2005 at the Chambers of Treasury Counsel, Code A. The address is 6 King's Bench Walk, Temple, London EC4.

If that is inconvenient please let me know and I will think of alternative dates.

Detective Superintendent Williams,

I am really having problems with trying to set up a conference in this case. Unfortunately I am not able to accommodate all parties involved with the dates you have given me. If you could let me have a date for when you are back at work I will try and set the conference up as soon as possible.

With regards to your letter dated 2nd August 2005, Paul Close will be back in the office next Friday and he will reply to your letter then.
