Wednesday 29th July at 14.45 Gladys wards fell in the dining room. Nurse in charge (Margaret Redington) was called to check Gladys over.
Nurse checked over, Gladys was helped to her chair, she had a cup of tea, and went to sleep.

Later in the afternoon, Gladys was walked to the toilet, her mobility was normal.
After tea Gladys had vomited a small amount, she was taken to her room, she also had diarrhoea, she was washed, changed and helped to bed. I informed John Perkins that Gladys wards had Diarrhoea.
