Prof Brian Hivesey - wanted to get an idea. How made judgment that unlawful killing:

(i) organic condition was not terminal

(ii) At point of admission pre prescribed large quantities of diamorphine + inconsistent with organic condition

(iii) delivered by syringe driver & no human ~~control~~ involved + dosed up → deterioration + continues through to death.

(iv) no further assessment that appropriate

(v) cause of death diamorphine.

Culpability of individuals duty of care

+ managed care directly or remotely by someone cause of act. A very clear breach of duty. He would say acquitted by the fact that Dr Barter { experienced Mr Reed }
reced trays + Reed pill

Murder - manslaughter
 - Mrs Richards they were challenged
 + yet at no stage interested.
