Police Station and at it's conclusion I'll give you a notice explaining what will happen to the tapes. I must remind you Doctor BARTON that at any time during this interview you have the right to legal advice, if you want to talk to Mr BARKER without us being present then please ask and we will leave the room. Your presence here is voluntary, you are not under arrest, you can leave at any time. Right, I also ought to say that you don't have to say anything but it may harm your defence if you do not mention when questioned something that you later rely on in court, anything you say may be given in evidence. If I can just point out this notice where it says that this interview room is capable of being monitored when the tape recorder is on the record mode only and with the tape running, a warning light will indicate when monitoring is taking place which is this red light here and at no other time can your conversation be overheard. Right that's my introduction.

We the police are investigating a complaint made by Mrs Gillian MACKENZIE and her sister Mrs LACK, into treatment afforded to their mother, Gladys RICHARDS who was a patient in the Thanks ever so much for that, what I'll do is we'll take a break there. Would you like a drink?

BARTON

Yes, please.

DS Code A

What would you like?

BARTON

Lot's of water please.

DS Code A

Yes of course we'll arrange that for you. By my watch the time is 11.36 and I'll turn the tape recorder off.
