Hi

Code A

You should by now have received case number 8, that of Geoffrey PACKMAN forwarded to you on the 26th June 2006..

Whilst there are 2 more cases to follow those of Service and Gregory they are not strong cases as indicated in my summary doc of 10th June 2006 and I would suggest are highly unlikely to be prosecuted in the light of expert evidence.

Looking at the evidence I would say that the cases having the most potential for criminal prosecution are:-

PACKMAN

SPURGIN

WILSON

Code A

LAVENDER

LAKE

As discussed we have interviewed consultant Dr REID this week and complete his caution interviews on the 11th and 14th July next week in respect of the cases of SPURGIN and PACKMAN.

We will forward Dr REIDS interviews to you during the week commencing 17th July 2006..

We have discussed meeting with counsel on either 25th or 27th July when our ACC Mr WATTS would like to be present.. He has set aside these dates in his diary..

Are you able to confirm?

Regards..

Dave WILLIAMS
