3 APPENDIX 3

3.1 TIMELINE OF NHS DEVELOPMENT 1989 - 1998

A Timeline of NHS development from 1989-1998

NB – Labour government instituted openness and transparency in government. Therefore, very little information on pre-1998 DoH policy/NHS strategies is available.

1989. ‘Working for Patients’ white paper led to legislature in the form of the NHS and Community Care Act (1990).

- Purchaser-provider split, and the internal market
- GPs were offered the chance to become fundholders

1990. February. ‘NHS responsibilities for meeting continuing health care needs’ published

1996. ROs assume functions of abolished RHAs

1996. Family practitioner administration loses independent existence when FHSAs and DHAs rationalised into 100 unified HAs 1996. 1st April. Complaints procedure introduced.

1997. New Labour government

1998. March. Review of prescribing, supply and administration of medicines.

1997. ‘The New NHS: Modern, Dependable’ white paper

- Approach to improvement of standards localised, based on co-operation & partnership

1997. HAS 2000 review of care of older people on acute wards

1998. October. ‘Making partnerships work in community care: a guide for practitioners in housing, health and social services published’.

1997. Joint investment plans introduced in response to monitoring of 1995 continuing care guidance.

1998. ‘Working Together: Securing a quality workforce for the NHS’ published.

1998. Public Interest Disclosure Act, to enable whistle blowing without fear of retribution. Gagging clauses prohibited.

1998. April. ‘The transfer of frail older NHS patients to other long stay settings’ published
