Dear Gillian

Investigation by the Commission for Health Improvement

Thank-you for your recent contact with the Commission for Health Improvement (CHI). I have attached an information sheet, which will give you some additional background into the investigation at the Gosport War Memorial Hospital.

As explained in the information sheet there are four ways in which you can contact us, you can either;

- I. Telephone us to make an appointment for a face to face interview on 21st November in Gosport or 22nd November in Portsmouth.
- II. Speak to a member of the team over the phone
- III. Write to me outlining your comments
- IV. Completing the enclosed questionnaire and returning it to our freepost address.

Contact details are included in the information sheet. If you should want to make an appointment with the investigation team then please contact Kellie Rehill, Investigation Coordinator, 020 7448 9420 by Friday 9th November.

Many thanks for your interest in the Commission for Health Improvement's work.

Yours sincerely
