Subject: GWMH - BBC request

Debbie

We have now had an email back from Kiran Bhogal, our solicitor regarding this.

She said:

You will also have seen the email from Dominic Blake at the BBC. For his purposes and the FOIA request which is imminent I think we can say that he can put in the request and that at the moment all indications are that it is Hants and we do have some documentation for management which can be provided. When I reply more substantively to Dominic Blake I can let him know who to direct the request to so we don't lose time.

The query is whether the liability for GWMH fell to HPCT, or PHT, who employ most of the staff. This is still being investigated as you can see, so when the request comes in we will need to check whether counsel has come to a view.
