

FAREHAM & GOSPORT The News

portsmouth.co.uk

FINAL

NEWSPAPER OF THE YEAR Thursday, March 19, 2009 42p

Half-price fun for kids

50 PER CENT OFF ENTRY TO KIDZ KINGDOM – COLLECT YOUR FIRST VOUCHER

PAGE 26

LIVE LIKE A MILLIONAIRE – TELL US WHO DESERVES A LUXURY HOLIDAY – PAGE 19

'WILL WE EVER KNOW WHY THEY DIED?'

After 10-year wait, families fear inquest will provide no clues to hospital deaths

FULL STORY ■ PAGES 3, 8&9

Clamping trauma

A MUM whose daughter was left in a critical condition after a crash had her car clamped as she visited her in hospital. Janet Brodie left her car outside her son's Fareham home with a visitor's pass in the window and then travelled to Peterborough to see her daughter.

■ PAGE 12

LOOKING FOR A CAREER?

WE'VE GOT 100s TO CHOOSE FROM INSIDE jobs today .co.uk

Nasty streak will save us

PAUL HART is backing Pompey's newly-discovered nasty streak to save their Premier League life.

The Blues boss' has added steel and stoked up the fight in his troops since taking over the helm five weeks ago.

■ BACK PAGE

ROSS

Est. 1974

All major cards taken

All the latest PS3, XBOX 360, PS2, PSP, NINTENDO Wii & DS GAMES, DVD's, CD's & CONSOLES in stock

PS3 games at unbelievable prices! 100's from £4.99-£9.99 to clear

Buy, sell and exchange Games, DVD's, CD's

(023) 9283 0955

EASY FREE PARKING BEHIND STORE

7-9 Kingston Rd Portsmouth