Dear Mrs O'Brien,

Re: Gladys RICHARDS, deceased
Inquest commencing: 9th April 2013

Thank you for your letter dated 1st May 2013 enclosing a cheque for £10.00.

I am pleased to enclose a copy of the recording of the Inquest into the death of your mother.

Please note that the copy CDs cannot be used to provide an official transcript for legal purposes. If you require an official transcript, please apply to the Coroner who will authorise transcription of the original recordings. The official transcript is available to interested parties for a fee, which will vary according to the length of the Inquest.

I also need to bring to your attention that these CDs are data CDs so you might have to listen to them on a computer as they might not work on a normal CD player.

I have been made aware that until recently the quality of the recordings is quite poor. I apologise for this issue caused by the technology.

If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,
