Peta – you will note he never gives a full answer – I want the CD - is he going to charge me for a copy when I asked for it ! Bindmans are good but I had to pay out of my own pocket – I approached them originally as I knew they had acted in defence of Adomoko circa 1993 and would know all there is to know – and the appeal - even if they lost the case for Adomoko and I wanted to “get in” before Barton ! Gillian I did suggest to Lesley that she kept in touch after the first pr-inquest – how did she think I was paying for JW with only beans in my pocket.? Gillian

I had already contacted Prof Ferner regarding your query and has acknowledged and told me he is considering it and will return to me

We have ordered a CD from [Code A]

Judicial Review is an utter wait of time in my view as a way forward in the case

And I am running out of patience– this situation is becoming farcical - I have written to Prof. Ferner as I understand you did not contact him re. the query until (by letter) on 9th. May – received on following Monday. Get yourself a PA who can deal with urgent and non urgent e mails – time is running out for a judicial review etc. and you have not commented on that suggestion Gillian

Hi!

Sorry I have still not caught up with the other emails from this week.

Really struggling to keep up. Hoping to catch up a bit soon.

Just to say I have not forgotten.

Best wishes
