Sent you e mails yesterday which are dated in my sent column as going out on 1 January 1601 – James in Georgia has sorted it out and says it is because Bt Yahoo has been hacked – made a mess of my virus and spyware as It registered the date as out of date in 24.5.6213 – up all night getting that sorted out and also my clock at 5pm this morning registered 23.04 – so hope you are not still having problems. Interesting to know if you have received the e mails dated 1.1.1601 –beyond the grave – this is joking going over the top Gillian my e mails this morning going out in the sent column below the ones going out assent in 1601
