A MAN OF COMMITMENT

I recently attended an Inquest in Portsmouth granted by Jack Straw in 2009 into my mother's death 15 years ago at the Gosport War Memorial Hospital. The previous MP for Eastbourne did little constructive to help me having destroyed all the papers without my permission after the last election - totally ignoring the House of Commons ruling on appropriate action when an MP loses his seat. The MP for Gosport would not help his constituents (Peter Viggers of Duck House fame) who also "lost" his seat at the last election.

I approached Stephen Lloyd who has been the most supportive human being during my long struggle for a hearing. I would like to place on record my appreciation of Stephen Lloyd who took the time to attend the first day of the 7 day hearing and give me moral support. He is a man committed to the welfare of his constituents and has the gift of "listening" in addition to being a first class MP. for Eastbourne.

Gillian M Mackenzie (address supplied)

Dave if you have the space for anything more //. . Any chance of getting it in before the local election (Gazette) as well as Saturday's edition of the Herald

//The case arose during the inquiries into the Gosport War Memorial Hospital surrounding the deaths causing concern of 92 families - a GMC hearing - all on the internet dealing with Gladys Richards.
