Dear Mrs O'Brien,

Hampshire Constabulary will shortly be publishing on its website an overview of the investigations into deaths at Gosport War Memorial Hospital. This follows the final inquest in April this year and the end of legal proceedings.

I understand that you have made applications under the Freedom of Information (FOI) act , and I wanted to draw your attention to the publication in the hope that it answers questions you may still have. In the event that it does not, I invite you to set out what they are in order that I might deal with them outside of the constraints of formal FOI legislation.

This does not affect your right to continue to make applications under FOI which will be addressed in accordance with the legislation.

Yours sincerely,

Code A
