The Summer Edition of our New Look Reporter

Dear Mr I Williamson

Please find enclosed the latest edition of our newsletter, The Reporter. If you have read this in the past you will no doubt recognise some changes!

Following on from feedback received we have decided to produce The Reporter as a much larger magazine to provide useful updates to our clients, experts and contacts. This is the first edition of this new look and I very much hope you enjoy reading our latest news and views.

Inside this edition you will see a special 'pull out' section celebrating the 1year anniversary of the opening of our office in the West Midlands. You will also see that we have some 'news' pages as well as a focus on our personal injury department who in the past twelve months have recovered in excess of £40million in compensation for their clients. There is also a very interesting article written by Douglas Silas the Head of our Public Law Department regarding 'best interests' of patients and which looks at a number of case studies regarding issues such as the right to life, the right to die and the right to treatment in between.

As always we very much welcome feedback and I would be delighted to hear from you as to what you might like to see covered in future editions and your thoughts regarding this edition.

For daily updates please visit our website at www.alexanderharris.co.uk

Yours sincerely
