Dear Code A

Thank you for replying at last to my e mail. I fail to understand what the GMC have to consider with regards to the release of the testimonials as submitted by bartons defence team. They were given into the public domain in there entirety and made by the writers in full knowledge that they were to be submitted to the GMC hearing, therefore there is absolutely no reason for you to further withhold them and should now release them to me in their entirety. Or is this just more stalling by the GMC knowing that once again we are working to a deadline. Your stalling has so far allowed this doctor to remain unpunished for her actions for over a decade. Remind me again who is it the GMC protects.

I would hope for an early reply but won't hold my breath.

Subject: Jane barton

I have been informed that I must apply to you in my request for copies of the 184 testimonials handed to the panel sitting to consider the fitness to practice of the above named doctor by Timothy Langdale Qc.

He said they were made by colleagues and patient who were aware of both the charges she was guilty off and the media attention this hearing had attracted, therefore I believe, they gave those testimonials in full knowledge and awareness that they were likely to be made public.

Therefore under the FOI act I request that you release and forward copies of the testimonials to me in their entirety. I look forward to your early response in this matter.

Iain Wilson
