Mr Waterson has asked me to make contact with you in this matter to explain his interest in the hearing.

Mr Waterson's constituent Mrs Gillian Mackenzie's mother Mr Gladys Richards died in Gosport Memorial Hospital in 1998. She was one of Dr Barton's patients. Mrs Mackenzie has been in contact with Mr Waterson since 2001 and he is currently awaiting the outcome of the Police investigation by Hampshire Constabulary. Mr Richards' Inquest has not as yet taken place.

Mr Waterson understands that the panel is due to reconvene next Monday 18th January and will be sitting from 18th until 29th January. Mr Waterson would be grateful if his interest in this case could be noted and to know the outcome of the Panel once this has been made.

Please acknowledge receipt of this email.

Many thanks

Thanks for this – yes, we need to log this in OCCE and DO. Would you be able to acknowledge receipt of this please?

The response informing of the outcome of the Panel hearing will need to go out in Neil Marshall's name, with Paul's approval. Please could you forward the draft of this reply to Neil and I once it has been drafted and I'll ensure it's approved and sent out.

Ref no is 2010-20.

Thanks,

Hi Code A

Laura and I have been updating Norman Lamb MP, Lib Dem Shadow Secretary of State for Health, and the constituency MP Sir Peter Viggers regularly throughout the case. We'd be happy to include Nigel Waterson MP in our regular correspondence if this would make life easier for you and Neil Marshall etc?

Thanks,
