Dear Dave

Many thanks for the update. Wow, what a saga.

Kind regards
Andrew

Subject: Operation Rochester.

Andrew,

I hope this email finds you well. Hopefully by now you will have returned from holiday?

This is just a short note to update you re the enquiry. It is probable that the Coroner will need to hold approximately 10 separate inquests. Exactly who is still being determined. The delay is partly due to financial and logistical planning in holding so many. That being the case it is unlikely that they will commence this year. When I have more information I'll let you know.

On a separate matter. The GMC are continuing their own regulatory body enquiries into the conduct of health professionals involved in the investigation. It is likely that they will be releasing documentation to the legal team of Dr Jane Barton in the next couple of weeks. This will include the reports that you have made in respect of individual patients.

There is nothing to be unduly concerned about it is standard practice. I'm letting you know out of courtesy.

If you have any concerns please contact me

Regards

Dave
