Richard..

I discussed the issue of the outcome with the CPS lawyer Paul Close last Thursday..
He was anticipating midweek next week 13th or 14th December (although he has not met previous estimations due to workload)
I will hopefully be meeting with CPS and Counsel during the week (or next week commencing 18th December 2006) to receive the result and discuss the rationale for it..
We will then need to meet with yourselves the SHA and other key stakeholders to understand how we will all be managing the outcome..
Will yourself or somebody else from the PCT be available?

DW.

Dave

I have heard that relatives (and Dr Barton) are being informed of something this week....any truth to this rumour?

Thanks Jennifer..

Still no news of a result other than the CPS annoyance at my pestering them

I will address any further update to Richard..

David,
I am just writing to let you know that, as a consequence of recent NHS re-organisation, the key link from the Primary Care Trust on Gosport War Memorial issues will be Richard Samuel from the new Hampshire Primary Care Trust (Richard.samuel@nhpct.nhs.uk). Richard dealt with this during his days with the SHA, so is well briefed, and it would be helpful if you could include him please on any updates / stakeholder briefings.
Many thanks
