Thanks Dave..

I spoke with Nick BROOKS reporter for the Portsmouth News this morning. I reminded him that their last release of February 2005 caused significant turmoil for family group members and the investigation in terms of managing the impact of a report that suggested that the investigation was far more advanced than it was. I told him that I hoped that the investigation would be completed during 2005, and that significant progress was being made. I was not able to offer him any detail. Mr BROOKS commented that he fully understood the situation and would not contact us for several weeks.

DW.
