Sir
Mrs McKenzie rang at 1434 today to enquire if you had received her message of yesterday, because she believes that nothing is being done regarding her points raised. She is very concerned about the MRSA issue in relation to elderly and infant patients transferred from Portsmouth Hospitals. She has spoken today to Paula Ripley with whom you had a conversation on 28/2/05 and she tells me that you didn't mention the MRSA issue in that conversation. She quoted an article in the Times in relation to the MRSA issue.
I informed her that yesterdays message had been passed to you as would this one
