For the spreadsheet,

In response to an in message at 0920 1/7/04 from Mrs Ripley wishing to speak to me urgently, I rang her at 0940.

Mrs RIPLEY received a letter today from Richard FOLLIS of Alexander Harris and has been advised by Gillian MACKENZIE to ring me as the content of the letter is outrageous after 4 years. Mrs RIPLEY regards Mrs MACKENZIE as a great friend who has knowledge of the law. The letter stated that Alexander Harris have sent a letter of approach to Professor J B MILES of Liverpool with a view to asking him what was the likely cause of Mr RIPLEY'S coma state. I advised Mrs RIPLEY not to be alarmed by this as her husband's case is different from the other Rochester cases, in that Mr RIPLEY is still alive, and Alexander Harris are pursuing a civil case regardless of the outcome of Rochester. I told her that I would mention her concerns to Alexander Harris. She appeared content with my reassurance.
