

Other Document Form

Number

T 111
-------

Title E MAIL FROM HAZEL SANDERS 29/3/04 RE MAS MACHINZIC
 (Include source and any document number if relevant)

Receivers instructions urgent action Yes  No

Document registered / indexed as indicated

No(s) of actions raised

Statement readers instructions

Indexed as indicated

No(s) of actions raised

Examined - further action to be taken

Further actions no(s)

Code A
O/M	SIO
Indexer

When satisfied all action raised Office Manager to endorse other Document Master Number Form.

Code A

From: Niven, Nigel
Sent: 29 March 2004 14:22
To: Code A
Subject: FW: Mrs. Mckenzie

Code A

For spread sheet.
 Thanks
 Nigel

-----Original Message-----

From: Code A
Sent: 29 March 2004 14:19
To: Niven, Nigel
Subject: RE: Mrs. Mckenzie

Nigel,

Mrs. Mckenzie phoned on 25th March, 2004. She said she had received DCC's letter dated 15th March that morning, post marked 20th. In particular she referred me to his sentence, 'I frankly have no idea what you are talking about with regard to my personal behaviour towards you on 11th September, 2003. This is the first time... for their attention.'

She stated that this is probably another case when a police officer does not recall but in front of an audience of however many people it was, he had stated, "Have you any allegations against me? Come on, make an allegation against me." Her reply was that when she thinks it is appropriate and the timing is right, she will. She went on to say, "If he thinks that I have not made enquiries about the HPA, then he is very much mistaken. They are well aware that eventually I will be in contact with them and I do not need Mr. Readhead to have my complaint and forward it to the Hampshire Police Authority. The other comments in the letter, I will forward a written reply to him. I do not think he has been professional with me at all. In relation to John James he said, 'You have already made complaints about the two police officers and they have been punished.' I do hope that Mr. Readhead's memory has not disappeared like all other Police Officers. It seems to be a thing that Police Officers say which is, 'I do not recall'. I spoke to the PCA on Monday. They tell me that they are waiting for PHQ. I will put things in writing to him."

She asked me to pass the message on to Mr. Readhead and I said, "Yes, Mrs. Mckenzie."

She then started talking about the Haslar files relating to her mother that were not submitted and ended by saying that the Police have not got the face to go back to Forrest and so we did not submit all the evidence to him.

Herewith the letter.

Code A

L Mrs.

MacKenzie3.doc

-----Original Message-----

From: Niven, Nigel
Sent: 29 March 2004 13:32
To: Code A
Subject: RE: Mrs. Mckenzie

Code A

Thank you for your email. Mrs Mackenzie phoned this morning and I have asked her to direct all her future calls to me. Alternatively, she can put any concerns into writing. Can you let me have an email detailing the content of your telephone conversation and, additionally, can you send me a copy of the final draft of the DCC's letter. I can update our contact spreadsheet. I have noted your previous email re briefing the Police Authority.

Thank you for your assistance
 Nigel

-----Original Message-----

From: Code A
Sent: 26 March 2004 13:04
To: Niven, Nigel
Subject: Mrs. Mckenzie

Nigel,

For your information, Mrs. Mckenzie phoned me yesterday with a message for the DCC which was again very offensive. I informed the DCC and he has asked me to instruct that when she phones again, her calls are to be forwarded to you.

Thanks,

Code A

Niven, Nigel

---

From: Code A
Sent: 29 March 2004 14:19
To: Niven, Nigel
Subject: RE: Mrs. Mckenzie

Nigel,

Mrs. Mckenzie phoned on 25th March, 2004. She said she had received DCC's letter dated 15th March that morning, post marked 20th. In particular she referred me to his sentence, 'I frankly have no idea what you are talking about with regard to my personal behaviour towards you on 11th September, 2003. This is the first time... for their attention.'

She stated that this is probably another case when a police officer does not recall but in front of an audience of however many people it was, he had stated, "Have you any allegations against me? Come on, make an allegation against me." Her reply was that when she thinks it is appropriate and the timing is right, she will. She went on to say, "If he thinks that I have not made enquiries about the HPA, then he is very much mistaken. They are well aware that eventually I will be in contact with them and I do not need Mr. Readhead to have my complaint and forward it to the Hampshire Police Authority. The other comments in the letter, I will forward a written reply to him. I do not think he has been professional with me at all. In relation to John James he said, 'You have already made complaints about the two police officers and they have been punished.' I do hope that Mr. Readhead's memory has not disappeared like all other Police Officers. It seems to be a thing that Police Officers say which is, 'I do not recall'. I spoke to the PCA on Monday. They tell me that they are waiting for PHQ. I will put things in writing to him."

She asked me to pass the message on to Mr. Readhead and I said, "Yes, Mrs. Mckenzie."

She then started talking about the Haslar files relating to her mother that were not submitted and ended by saying that the Police have not got the face to go back to Forrest and so we did not submit all the evidence to him.

Herewith the letter.

Code A

L Mrs. MacKenzie3.doc

-----Original Message-----

From: Niven, Nigel
Sent: 29 March 2004 13:32
To: Code A
Subject: RE: Mrs. Mckenzie

Code A

Thank you for your email. Mrs Mackenzie phoned this morning and I have asked her to direct all her future calls to me. Alternatively, she can put any concerns into writing. Can you let me have an email detailing the content of your telephone conversation and, additionally, can you send me a copy of the final draft of the DCC's letter. I can update our contact spreadsheet. I have noted your previous email re briefing the Police Authority.

Thank you for your assistance
 Nigel

-----Original Message-----

From: Code A
Sent: 26 March 2004 13:04
To: Niven, Nigel
Subject: Mrs. Mckenzie

Nigel,

For your information, Mrs. Mckenzie phoned me yesterday with a message for the DCC which was again very offensive. I informed the DCC and he has asked me to instruct that when she phones again, her calls are to be forwarded to you.

Thanks,

Code A