Subject: Operation Rochester (Mrs. McKenzie)

Sgt

Gillian McKenzie phoned the operation Rochester office this morning (0900 hrs 13/02/04) asking to leave a message for you. She stated that the reason she may have sounded a "little off" yesterday when she received your telephone call was due to the fact that there had been a break down in communication and that she was not aware that she would be receiving a call from you. Mrs McKenzie went on to explain that she had phoned her sister that morning and was informed that DI Niven was coming to see her about their mother. It was for that reason that Mrs McKenzie thought she ought to wait in otherwise she may well have gone out for the day and missed your call.

Mrs McKenzie was very pleasant and asked that this be passed on to you and requested that you may phone her back.
