Dear Mrs. MacKenzie,

I refer to your recent telephone call to my PA regarding the Gosport War Memorial Hospital and comment as follows.

I can confirm that at the meeting on 11th September I informed you that the PCA were going to nominate a Detective Chief Superintendent from another Force to review the decision making process within four weeks. This has now happened and the PCA continue with their review of the complaint papers.

The Report from the HMI on Professional Standards in the Hampshire Constabulary has been completed and published and I attach a list of the key recommendations for your attention. No other action is taking place, as they do not review individual cases.

Yours sincerely,

I.R. Readhead
Deputy Chief Constable
