Bob

This lady (see below) contacted me some while ago about the death of her father at the War Memorial & asked me to forward her email to whoever dealing with next phase of the various investigations. Hope appropriate to forward to you. I've managed to loose her original message I'm afraid, basic gist was she read local press coverage and thought her father had been over subscribed - hope ok.

I've told her have passed to you.

Thanks!
 Julie

Dear N Code A

Thank you for your email to CHI regarding the War Memorial Hospital, which has received some press attention recently. The CHI investigation has now been completed and the report made public on www.chi.nhs.uk.

As you know, there are further investigations ongoing - as I understand by both the police and the local NHS in Portsmouth. I am anxious not to break your confidence and wonder if you would be happy for me to forward your email on as appropriate?

Could you let me know?

Regards,

N154
