Dear Mrs MacKenzie,

Following our recent telephone conversation I am writing to confirm that DI Morgan and Code A have both received operational advice as set out in the letter sent to you by Mr Gear of the Police Complaints Authority.

Also I can confirm that you are entirely right in your assertion that a copy of the notes made by your sister was obtained by DC Maddison, and that the advice DI Morgan received in relation to them was that she should of ensured they were exhibited.

In closing I offer my apologies, on behalf of the Constabulary, that you did not receive the service you ought to have done, as is evidenced by the need for officers to receive advice.

I am pleased that you are very much happier with the further investigation being led by DCI Ray Burt, and I have ensured that your kind comments about him have been brought to his attention, and to that of his senior officer.

Yours sincerely,

Code A

Adrian Whiting,
Superintendent
