

Code A

From: Ann Alexander
Sent: 02 February 2003 17:38
To: Emily Yeats
Cc: Code A
Subject: RE: Meeting - Wednesday February 5th

Dear Emily

I am sorry you won't be there but don't worry about missing anything. If you would like to ring Code A she will be back in the office on Thursday and will be pleased to fill you in. I will be away on business all week but will be back in the office on the 10th.

Best wishes

Ann

Ann Alexander
 Managing Partner

Code A

The information in this e-mail and any attachments is intended for the sole attention and use of the named addressee(s) and may be subject to legal, professional or other privilege.

If you are not the intended recipient, please notify the sender immediately. You must not disclose, copy, distribute or retain any part of this message. Although this message and any attachments are believed to be free of any virus, it is the responsibility of the recipient to ensure that they are virus free. Alexander Harris accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage from receipt or use thereof.

Alexander Harris Solicitors

Code A

-----Original Message-----

From: Emily Yeats Code A
Sent: 30 January 2003 18:50
To: Ann Alexander
Subject: Meeting - Wednesday February 5th

Dear Anne

Just a short note to send my apologies as I will not be able to attend the meeting next week. Unfortunately, I have a prior arrangement which I cannot rearrange.

Mum and Code A will be attending of course. I had an in-depth meeting with Code A Code A last week so I am happy that I am as up to date as possible at the moment. I am sure I will be updated by Mum after the meeting. However if there is anything you need to discuss with me or that I need to know then please get in touch.

I am sorry that I will miss seeing you and the rest of the team. I am hoping to get involved in some charity work and I had already committed to attending a meeting that night.

03/02/2003