FROM: Lesley Richards
DATE: 6.12.2002
CLIENT NUMBER:
MATTER NUMBER: Code A
CASE ID:
CLAIMANT NAME: Gosport War memorial hospital

Leslie Richards telephoning Code A to inform her that Owen Kenny visited her yesterday.

Code A did not inform Mrs Richardson that Gillian McKenzie had already telephoned her that morning. Leslie explained that Mr Kenny had once or twice said that nothing he says should get to the press, and made her promise. He, apparently, really felt that there would be a criminal case stop he said that he may go down the line of maybe 10 to 15 cases -- one of which would be the Richards case.

Mrs Richards explaining the details that Mr Kenny had given her with regards the 1990 documents. In 1988, Dr Barton was appointed to the War memorial hospital. The 1990 nurses were very concerned with regards the excessive use of diamorphine.

Mrs Richardson stated that Mr Kenny had indicated that the case would probably be in court in by September 2003. The reason why Mrs Richards wanted to know with regards timing is that she goes to Cyprus every summer for three months and wanted to check that the two would not clash.
