Dear Mrs Carby

Following our telephone conversation on Monday 13th May I write to confirm the arrangements for our meeting to review your late husband's health records.

The meeting will take place on Wednesday 22nd May 2002, at 9.30am. Present will be yourself, your daughter, a doctor and myself.

On arrival at the hospital would you please go to the reception desk at Anne's Hill Road entrance. The receptionist will let me know you are here.

I look forward to meeting you both.

Yours sincerely
