Dear Mrs Carby

Thank you for your letter copied to the Home Secretary regarding the very sad death of your husband at Gosport War Memorial Hospital and your suspicions around the nature of his death as well as strong feelings of dissatisfaction with Hampshire Police Service investigation into this matter. Please accept my condolences at this sad time for you.

However the Chief Constable is responsible for the day to day operational management of the force and is therefore the appropriate authority to respond to your letter. I note that you have already written to them and I understand that you feel dissatisfied with their response but unfortunately I have to inform you that I am unable to assist you further in this matter.

For your further information I have enclosed the leaflet "Making your complaint against the police."

Yours sincerely
