STAFF GRADE POST – GOSPORT WAR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

I have spoken to Chris Donohoe who says we can aim to get an advert in on the BMJ of 20 May, 2000 if I can send it to her by 10 May 2000. She suggests we use a display advertisement (and not the usual small lineage ad.) and the cost of this would be around £800-£1000.

- Can I go ahead?
- Do we want to advertise anywhere else, ie "Hospital Doctor" etc?
- I would value your comments on the advertisement by Tuesday, 9 May 2000.

With many thanks for your help.

Dr A Lord FRCP

STAFF GRADE PHYSICIAN
DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE
GOSPORT WAR MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

(Full/Part-Time/Jobshare)

Required from the 1st July 2000.

Applications are invited for this new post and will be based primarily in a Community Hospital. The Department is undergoing a major re-organisation and exciting changes in delivering post-acute care and rehabilitation are imminent. The job involves the day to day medical care of 35 continuing care patients and 9 slow stream stroke rehabilitation patients on Daedalus and Dryad Wards, and sessions in Dolphin Day Hospital. Candidates should have at least 3 years' experience at SHO level, of which a minimum of 6 months should have been in Geriatric Medicine. The DGM or MRCP would be desirable.
