Have just spoken with Dr Evans. His practice were only ever interested in the 'during office hours' cover to these wards apparently.

Jim Warner has gone back to Bob Button who originally negotiated with the Trust. I think it is probably back to the drawing board. I will talk to elderly medicine again on my return from leave. Hope this is what you need.

Dear Fiona

I am pulling together the agenda for the Gosport GP group meeting 7 March. This topic will come up under matters arising. Would it be possible for you to let me know where we are with this before next Thursday?

Many thanks.

Elizabeth

Thanks Fiona. I suggest you have another try with Tony Evans. His practice do not make swift decisions. If you can work something out with them, three cheers, if they are not interested I think it probably needs a final discussion with elderly care before dropping the proposal for the change for the six beds. If the change of use of the six beds fails we will be back to 24 GP beds with the bed fund made up of the £12697 in the current budget plus the additional £7000 from the PCG funding agreed to recognise the increasing "intermediate care" workload.

I'm glad you asked me this as I'm not sure where to go next.

I spoke to Jim Warner as per your E mail in Dec. He passed me on to Tony Evans as his interest seemed to be the change in remuneration for the remaining 18 beds.

Dr Evans was surprised by my call and said that he wasn't aware that only his practice had expressed an interest. Said he need to talk to his partners and asked what was involved. I sent him a copy contract specification on 4th Jan.

I'm afraid we then went into full blown CHI and it has only just re-appeared at the top of my pile. My plan would be to ring Dr Evans to see where he is with it. Any other suggestions gratefully received.
