

Tackling violence against GPs and their staff

Dr Beasley and Partners aim to provide a safe and pleasant environment in which family health services can be offered to patients by our staff.

Therefore threatening, abusive, aggressive or violent behaviour is not acceptable.

The Practice will take appropriate action against any person who displays such behaviour

4 June 2003