Good afternoon, Hilary

There's no need to apologise. We all have difficult diaries in these interesting times.

[Code A] and I will be delighted to meet with Sue Harriman on 3 December 2009, 11:00 hours.

Kind regards

Dear [Code A] - thank you for your e mail and I apologise for not getting back to you earlier. I have been gathering some information which I hope to send to you by letter from Katrina in the next couple of days.

I am having a bit of a struggle with diary dates. Sue Harriman, Director of Clinical Delivery and Excellence, has been on leave and Katrina is about to go on leave! It is probably more appropriate that you meet with Sue Harriman. Unfortunately Sue is unable to meet with within the dates you suggested but wondered whether Thursday 3 December at 11.00am would be convenient to you.

Once again many apologies for not getting back to you earlier and look forward to hearing from you.

Hilary

Good afternoon, Hilary

Following my email last week, I am afraid I have to add an additional date, 17 November 2009, when we will not be able to meet.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Good morning, Ms Davies

I have returned from a period of unexpected absence this morning and received your message and email.

I attach a copy of the letter sent to you last week. Clearly this was incorrectly addressed and you did not receive it.

While we are happy to meet tomorrow, it may be that the Trust would prefer to postpone the meeting until next month.

I will contact you this morning to discuss this further.

Kind regards

Good afternoon, Ms Davies

Thank you for speaking to me last week. In advance of our meeting with members of the Trust staff, please find attached correspondence.

I would be grateful if you could pass this on to Katrina Percy. I am happy to answer any questions arising from this letter before next Wednesday.

Kind regards
